Introduction

We are working towards advancing the Fair Work First criteria above. Our aim is to deliver good quality and fair work through continuous improvement.

We fully involve and engage with the trade unions on updates or changes made, to review actions and outcomes and identify further improvements for advancing the Fair Work First commitments.

1 We commit to pay Real Living Wage

We are a Living Hours and Living Wage Accredited employer.

2 We have appropriate channels for effective workers' voice

We have appropriate channels for effective employee voice to create a culture of ownership and collaboration.

- We recognise two Trade Unions and consult with them both on proposed changes in the organisation relating to our people. We make available, wherever possible, reasonable facilities necessary for Trade Union Representatives to carry out their duties efficiently and communicate effectively with their members.
- We have a range of employee engagement forums and working groups established, such as the Employee Strategy Group, Health Living Group and community of excellence focus groups for service improvement. These provide employees with safe environments to work in partnership to influence decision making, providing opportunities to seek their views, actively listen and act upon these.

3 We invest in Workforce Development

We invest in the development of our workforce, offering and supporting our people to engage in learning and development opportunities. We will continue to support our people's learning and development, as we evolve to embrace new ways of working, developing a future skills development programme with emphasis on digital, low carbon, diversity, and new build.

- All employees are supported and encouraged to identify and discuss their development goals and plans at their annual Development Reviews and through regular one-to-one meetings with their line manager
- Formal and informal learning is offered across the workforce, relating to people's particular role and wider development.
- We are committed to providing apprenticeships and to supporting the Young Person's Guarantee.
- We support our employees to keep their professional qualifications up-to-date through continuous professional development, payment of fees and personal subscriptions.
- We are a silver accredited Investor in People organisation.
- We have a strong focus on the wellbeing of our people with an active Healthy Living Group.

We do not use zero hours contracts.

5 We take action to tackle the gender pay gap and create a more diverse and inclusive workplace

- We have an EDI Policy in place and our 2022-25 People Strategy promotes an inclusive workplace where our team values diversity and works together to reduce inequalities and provide inclusive services for all.
- We are committed to producing gender pay gap information to assist the achievement of this.
- We are a Disability Confident Employer. We encourage the employment and retention of all groups of people and consider any recommended reasonable adjustments to achieve this.
- We conduct Equality impact assessments before introducing new key policies and procedures or making proposed changes to existing services to ensure that they are fair and do not disadvantage any protected groups.
