Introduction

There are references throughout this Code of Conduct (the Code) to 'I' and 'you' which means the people working at Scottish Borders Housing Association (SBHA) who have signed this Code. References to 'we', 'us' and 'our' mean SBHA.

1. SBHA attaches the greatest importance to ensuring that high standards of behaviour are demonstrated by all of our people and in all of our activities.
2. This Code of Conduct sets out the standards of conduct required of you as a member of our team. You are required to observe these standards in all the activities that you undertake in connection with your employment with us. You are also required to uphold our Values which are:
 - Delivering Excellence Together;
 - Being Responsible;
 - Always Improving; and
 - Everybody Matters.
3. As a Registered Social Landlord (RSL), we are required to adopt and comply with an appropriate Code of Conduct¹. This Code is based on the Model Code of Conduct produced by the Scottish Federation of Housing Associations with input from Employers in Voluntary Housing (EVH) – which the Scottish Housing Regulator (SHR) has confirmed fully complies with its Regulatory Standards.
4. You must make yourself familiar with the terms of this Code and act in accordance with its requirements at all times. You are required to sign the Code (in the 'Statement of Acceptance' on p9) to confirm that you have read and understood the terms of the Code and you have a personal responsibility to uphold the requirements of this Code.
5. You must also ensure you are familiar with - and comply with - all of our policies.
6. If there are any aspects of this Code, or of any of the related policies, on which you are unclear, you must seek guidance from your manager. Your manager, or the Human Resources (HR) Team, will also be able to give guidance where you are unsure how the Code or related policies apply in a particular situation.
7. This Code of Conduct was adopted by the Board of Management on 28th November 2024.

Who this code applies to

8. This Code of Conduct applies to everyone who works for us whether employed directly or otherwise.
9. A copy of this Code will be given to every person it applies to.

How the Code is structured

10. The Code is based on the Nolan Principles on Standards in Public Life² which are recognised as defining good conduct for those who work for the public using public money.
11. We have defined three groups of principles as the basis for the Code:
 - A Honesty and Integrity p3-4
 - B Openness and Accountability p5-6
 - C Selflessness, Objectivity, Leadership p7-8
12. Each of the three sections begins with a statement of principle. This is followed by a number of provisions which set out the requirements of the Code in more detail.

The Code is not exhaustive and it should be remembered that all team members of RSLs are responsible for ensuring that their conduct at all times meets the high standards that the RSL sector is recognised for upholding. As well as observing the detail of the Code, you should apply its intention and spirit to all situations in employment.

You are required to sign the Statement of Acceptance at the conclusion of this code on page 9 which also outlines the implications for any breach of the code.
